

SILLY YARN EXPLODED

No Signs of Trouble Among the Indians on the Utah Reservation.

(Special to The Herald.)
Price, Utah, May 12.—Stories published in an afternoon paper at Salt Lake City, to the effect that there is fear of an outbreak among the Utah Indians on the reservation and that the Indians have been arming secretly for several weeks is the worst kind of rot.

The Fifth cavalry, now coming in from Fort Apache, Ariz., is sent out there simply for patrol duty and to prevent "sneakers" from getting on the reservation before the opening in September next. The Utahs recently sent twelve of their number to Washington and while there they discussed the opening and allotments with "The Great Father," and all returned entirely satisfied. Allotting Agent Charles S. Carter of Vernal and Captain Hall are going along nicely with their work, and have so far experienced not the slightest unpleasantness.

During the present week a large number of prominent Utahs, White Rivers and Umpahpags have been in Price after their freight and many are now on the road out. If there was any trouble brewing no prominent ones would be off the reservation. It may be possible that some of the White Rivers are in Colorado at this time and some of the other tribes may be headed towards the Navaho reservation to trade. But trouble there is none.

Bryan Says President Has Sound Railway Views.

Kansas City, May 12.—William J. Bryan was the guest of honor and principal speaker at a dinner given by the Knave and Fork club of this city at the Midland hotel tonight. In an interview Mr. Bryan said that he admired the position of President Roosevelt and Mr. Taft upon the question of the railroads. When asked if he thought the president would call a special session of congress and urge upon that body the necessity of immediate legislation, Mr. Bryan refused to commit himself. In regard to the recent Irondale banquet in Chicago, at which President Roosevelt was the guest of honor, Mr. Bryan said: "I was gratified at the recent expression of good will of the demonstration in Chicago toward the president and I am glad that the Democrat of the nation are supporting President Roosevelt in his position on the railroad legislation."

STORM AT CINCINNATI.

Cincinnati, May 12.—The rainfall for the past twenty-four hours reached 2.35 inches in this city, flooding streets, causing many washouts on the railroads, blocking traffic on several street car lines and doing a great deal of damage to houses and vegetation over a large section. Heavy damage was reported in the old fields. Four persons have been struck by lightning and two of them are dying.

NEGRO DESPERADO HANGED BY A POSSE OF CITIZENS AT BELMONT, MO.

Cairo, Ill., May 12.—Tom Witherspoon, a negro, was taken from officers at Belmont, Mo., fifteen miles below Cairo, at 6 o'clock this evening, by a mob of several hundred persons, and hanged in the public square to a large swing.

Early this morning a negro, said to be Witherspoon, who only recently returned from the Missouri penitentiary, went to the home of Fred Hess, three miles below Belmont, and at the point of a rifle demanded $500. Hess, who was formerly a member of the legislature, told the negro he did not have that much money in the house. The negro ordered him to go to Belmont and get the money. He compelled Hess to hitch up a horse and buggy and ordered him to get in with his wife and child. The negro then said Hess to drive toward Belmont, and when that place was near, the negro forced Mrs. Hess and the child to get out of the buggy and entered a deserted shanty.

Threats of Murder.

The negro then told Hess to drive to Belmont and to send the money back by a negro preacher inside of one hour, or he would kill his wife and child.

Hess hurried to Belmont and got the money and sent it back with a negro preacher. The desperado immediately mounted the horse and rode up to the iron mountain tracks. A posse was organized at Belmont and Columbus citizens and a small party followed the negro in a switch engine and discovered that he had taken refuge in the swamps around First Lake.

Roadblocks were secured from Charleston and negroes were found in a deserted shanty. He was captured and several hundred persons had formed in Belmont and they immediately, to the charge of the negro, and despite his pleading and pleadings, they rushed him into the public square, secured a rope from a large swing and strung the negro up.

NAN'S MOTHER FAINTED.

News Completely Overcame the Aged Parent.

Washington, May 12.—The first intimation that Mrs. Patterson, mother of Nan Patterson, had of her daughter's release was obtained in the Associated Press bulletin from New York. Mrs. Patterson at first would not believe the news but when convinced that the report was correct she collapsed and physicians were hastily sent for. When the Associated Press bulletin was carried to the family residence, Mrs. Patterson's three married sisters, Mrs. J. Edward Taylor, Mrs. H. P. Lowell and Mrs. V. L. Millburn, were seated on the porch. Mrs. Patterson refused to be seen, but the news was carried to her by the two last named.

Almost Too Good to Be True.

The first member of the Patterson family to hear the news was Miss Patterson's brother, C. H. Patterson, who was found at his place of business. He also at first was unwilling to believe the news, because he said the family had been misled by untrue reports of his sister's liberation. When finally convinced that the report was true.

"That is what we have been praying for for a year. It seems too good to be true. The agony which my mother and all of us have suffered is now at an end."

After restoratives had been administered Mrs. Patterson soon rallied and through Mrs. Lowell sent word to the reporters outside that her one desire now was to see her daughter.

The mother of the release of Mrs. J. Morgan Smith was likewise received with manifestations of joy by the members of her family. Mrs. Patterson upon recovery from her fainting spell insisted upon knowing all that was happening. After a conference her daughters decided to inform her of Mrs. Smith's release. Already telegrams of congratulations are beginning to arrive at the Patterson home.

Getting a New Crop of Hair, and Has No More Dandruff.

Everybody in the northwest knows Colonel Daniel Scaries, the veteran journalist and publisher of Butte, Jan. 18, 1900.

The Colonel writes: "I used a couple of bottles of Newbro's Herpicide with marvelous results. The dandruff disappeared; a new crop of hair has taken root, and the bald spot is rapidly being covered."

Herpicide is the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ that digs up the scalp in scales as it burrows its way to the root of the hair, where it destroys the vitality of the hair, causing the hair to fall out. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send for a sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
